In the City Court

Yesterday was a dull day in the city court. Only one case came up for trial. Francis Howard a woman of the district was arrested for entering the Lockie House to visit a man friend. She was fined $7.50 and warned to stay away from down town places.

Miner Slightly Injured

While working at the Shattuck yesterday morning at nine o'clock, Andrew McCabe was slightly injured when a floor on which he was standing broke and he fell about 10 feet. He was taken to the C. & A. dispensary, where an examination showed that he was only slightly bruised. He was taken to his home in Upper Lowell.

Burglars Entering Store

When Louis Senn entered his store on Naco Road early yesterday morning he at once noticed that the place had been burglarized. A hasty examination showed that over $1,000 worth of fine Mexican drawn work and silks were missing. The store is located near the Arizona Bar. Officers were notified and spent all day yesterday telephoning to border towns and trying to trace the robbers. It was stated that several hobses hung around the store the day previous. Among these was a Mexican, Marcio Nieto, who recently escaped from the Lowell jail. Until a late hour last night no arrests were made. There was only about $200 worth of goods left in the store.

FREE ADVICE TO SICK WOMEN

Thousands Have Been Helped
By Common Sense
Suggestions.

Women suffering from any form of female ills are invited to communicate promptly with the woman's private correspondence department of the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established a confidential correspondence which has extended over many years and which has never been broken. Never have they published a testimonial or used a letter without the written consent of the writer, and never has the Company allowed these confidential letters to get out of their possession, as the hundreds of thousands of them in their files will attest.

Out of the vast volume of experience which they have to draw from, it is more than possible that they possess the very knowledge needed in your case. Nothing is asked in return except your good will, and their advice has helped thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, should be glad to take advantage of this generous offer of assistance. Address Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass.

Every woman ought to have Lydia E. Pinkham's 80-page Text Book. It is not a book for general distribution, as it is too expensive. It is free and only obtainable by mail. Write for it today.

Bound Over To Higher Court

Dr. M. D. Cohn was tried in the Lowell court yesterday afternoon for running into a buggy near Don Luis last Sunday with his auto and falling to stop immediately. Numerous witnesses testified that he made no attempt to stop, and that he passed the buggy on the wrong side of the road. George Rupert was the complaining witness. Judge Smith stated after the witnesses had been examined that the state law explicitly said that an auto driver must stop after running into anyone. The court ordered Dr. Cohn bound over to the Superior Court and placed his bond at $100, which he immediately made.

WILL OPEN TONIGHT
AT OLD OPERA HOUSE

New Skating Rink and Five Cent Dance Floor Latest Amusement Place in City

At the Old Opera House tonight on Opera Drive, the district's newest amusement enterprise will be opened. It is that of the Eastman skating rink and five cent dance floor.

Mr. Eastman, proprietor of a similar place in Phoenix, one of the largest and most successful in the Southwest, promises that he will make the Bisbee house the equal of his Phoenix establishment in attractiveness and excellence of conduct.

At the opening tonight there will be an excellent five piece string orchestra on the dance floor. On the skating rink floor there will be a brass band, and attendants are promised not only a plenty of music but also the use of new skates, brought direct from the factory and of the very best make.

General invitation is extended to the public to attend the opening tonight, and meet with the management and note the improvements that have been made and that are planned in the building.

KILLED IN THE PRISON REVOLT

Charles Koontz Was Former Resident in the Sulphur Springs Valley, Where He Took up a Homestead

A former resident of the Sulphur Springs valley was one of the men killed in the prison riot and attempt to escape from the Oklahoma penitentiary at McAlester last week, according to the following taken from the Courtland Arizona of last week.

The Charles Koontz who was killed in this jailbreak was a son of R. W. Koontz, a well-known and highly respected citizen of the White-water district. Young Koontz held a homestead near that of his father.

"While the press dispatches telling of this jail break state that Koontz was serving a term of 40 years for manslaughter, this is a mistake, he having been sent up for taking part in a bank robbery at which no one was killed and the bank suffered no loss.

"Several residents of the valley have stated to the Arizona representative that they knew the young man while a resident of the valley and speak in the highest terms of him, ascribing his downfall to his one fault of being easily led and think that undoubtedly his escapades were the result of the leadership of vicious acquaintances.

"While here Wednesday R. W. Koontz, father and Fred Miles, brother-in-law of the young man, stated that they had every reason to believe that he would have been paroled in the very near future, as the result of their efforts, in which the previous good prison record during the three years that he had served had gained very favorable consideration on the young man could not be persuaded to believe that their efforts would be successful. Mr. Koontz has a letter from the county attorney of the county in which the attempted bank robbery took place, that spoke of the excellent prison record and was very encouraging in the belief that a parole would be soon granted.

Hunting Season Over
Today will be the last for hunting quail and ducks. Many hunters left yesterday to get the benefit of the last two days of the season. Hunters returning from the valley and mountains for the past few days report game plenty.
